

Invitation

Name the ten wealthiest men in the world.

Name the last ten PGA Golf trophy winners.

Name the last ten winners of the Miss Australia contest.

Name eight people who have won the Nobel prize.

How about the last ten Academy Award winners for best picture or the last decade's worth of V8 Supercar Bathurst winners?

How did you do? I didn't do well either. With the exception of the trivia hounds, none of us remember the headliners of yesterday too well. Surprising how quickly we forget, isn't it? And what I've just mentioned are no second-rate achievements. These are the best in their fields. But the applause dies. Awards tarnish. Achievements are forgotten. Accolades and certificates are buried with their owners.

Here's another quiz. See how you do on this one.

Think of three people you enjoy spending time with.

Name ten people who have taught you something worthwhile.

Name five friends who have helped you in a difficult time.

List a few teachers who have aided your journey through school.

Name half-a-dozen heroes whose stories have inspired you.

Was that a bit easier? It was for me, too. Here's the deal? The people who make a difference are not the ones with the credentials, but the ones with the concern.

God has a concern and love for each of us that we cannot comprehend. But know this we can go to Him anytime whether we feel like we are in sinking sand or celebrating on the mountain.

If you would like to find out more about the God of concern and love ..... come and join me on Sunday mornings 9.30am @ the Church of Christ on Beaconsfield Road.... or maybe a Church closer to where you live. Anyone is welcome.

Blessings
