

How to Change the World!

One person, one attitude at a time.

Imagine if everyone in the world could live just a little more tender hearted towards each other , that would make a difference, or show just a little more mercy or kindness, even to strangers. What if we practiced being gentle and humble more each day and exercised our patience instead of just testing it.

If we could make allowance for each other faults, and forgive offences quickly, could this mean the end to Road Rage and domestic violence?

Then just for a moment wonder what it could be like if we could be rid of our anger, slander and malicious behaviour the courts would be empty!

People were generous rather than greedy and we removed dirty language from our vocabulary. If we all chose the moral high ground and threw lust out of the driver's seat.

Reading this article now you could be thinking the woman's a dreamer, it would be nice but I can't see that happening. It's a fantasy, what would it take?

I must confess these ideas are not mine but God's. I read about them in the bible the book of Colossians Chap 3.

Please don't get me or God wrong, it is not about rules or regulations but rather relationship.

God's plan is that we relate well to him, everyday! Jesus died on the cross, closed the gap and enabled us to come as we are into relationship with God. God's desire is that we relate well to him and each other, so he gave us his word, as a 'how to do life well' reference.

But like any good guide it needs to be referred to often. He loves you, hear from Him today.
